FRENCH AVIATION CAMP AT VERDUN AS SEEN FROM THE SKY

This remarkable picture was taken from a French aeroplane about 500 metres in the air directly over a French aviation camp near Verdun. The photograph plainly shows the aero hangars and in front of them the insect-like war planes. Grouped about the hangars are motor trucks and cars, and to the left are shown a number of tents, the living abodes of the aviators, pilots and others situated about the camp. The broad white streak running diagonally across the photo is a road.

sum of $50.75 and interest at 8 percent from May 29th, 1916, and costs incurred alleged to be due on account for merchandise purchased by the defendant from the plaintiff.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Weber County, Utah, for delivery to the plaintiff.

WITNESS, HON. GEO. S. BARKER, Judge of said Court, with the seal thereof, this 19th day of June, 1916. (Seal) L. N. FULTON, Clerk.

INCOME TAX COMMISSIONER TALKS ON SAVING.

The opinions of William H. Osborn, United States Commissioner of International Revenue, on saving, are quoted in the August American Magazine.

"People get rich in two ways," he says. "The minority through skill and success in investments and trading; the majority through systematic saving of small sums. I know a man who just before he was to be married twenty years ago lost all he had, and went eleven thousand dollars in debt on a business deal. He gave his intended bride a chance to release herself."

"I think you can get on your feet again," she told him. "I'm willing to take a chance."

"All right," he said; "get into the boat with me."

"And they were married."

"The bride got a cigar box and cut a hole in the top of the lid. She called it her 'furniture box,' and into it went all the dimes and quarters she didn't really need. Soon she had enough to furnish a home."

"But she didn't quit saving. She kept right on until she had $2,000. With this she bought a piece of land, which she later sold for $3,000. The fund kept growing, and she kept making more investments. Today she has money and property in her own name valued at upwards of $40,000."

"I know of many more cases just like that. It's a law of business that invariably succeeds."

"My advice to every young man is to start a savings fund and put into it a definite part of what he makes. When the total runs to five hundred dollars or more he should invest it in something which brings more interest than he can get from a savings bank, yet is safe. If he keeps on in this way, he will be independent when he gets old enough to quit work."

BIRCH BARK.

Candlesticks of metal covered with birch bark cost, in a small size, with shades of the bark, $1.50. There are larger sizes at higher prices, and they are very pretty for the summer cottage.

NAPKIN BANDS.

The problem of marking napkins, when they must serve for more than one meal, is not difficult when some ring or band is used. There are attractive hand-wrought silver bands for $2.50 each, oblong in shape, which serve the identifying purpose of such things, for they are marked with initials. The little silver clips, which are themselves flag-like initials or monograms, are also useful for this purpose.
